Re: MUR 6436

Dear Mr. Jordan:

On December 29, 2010 I spoke with Frankie Hampton of the Federal Election Commission regarding the above-referenced matter. Ms. Hampton advised that a Designation of Counsel form signed by Mia Caetano Johnson, as Treasurer, and on behalf of Friends of John Loughlin ("Committee"), is needed in the above-referenced matter. Ms. Johnson, as Treasurer of the Friends of John Loughlin Committee ("Treasury"), has designated me as her counsel and as the Committee's counsel and authorized me to speak on her behalf and on the Committee's behalf regarding this matter. (Attached). The following statement is in addition to the statement previously supplied to the Federal Election Commission by John J. Loughlin, II, and constitutes both Ms. Johnson's and the Committee's reply to the complaint.

The complaint pertains to a newsletter of the Little Compton Taxpayer Association ("LCTA"): a taxpayer group which apparently endorsed Mr. Loughlin, as well as other candidates running for state and municipal office, who were on the November 2, 2010 ballot in Little Compton, Rhode Island. Neither Treasurer Johnson nor anyone associated with her or with the Friends of John Loughlin Committee made expenditures regarding this LCTA newsletter. Neither Treasurer Johnson nor anyone associated with the Friends of John Loughlin Committee had anything whatsoever to do with this LCTA newsletter. Neither Treasurer Johnson nor anyone associated with the Friends of John Loughlin Committee was even aware of this newsletter until this matter was commenced. The LCTA newsletter was not made in concert or cooperation with or at the request or suggestion of Treasurer Johnson, or anyone associated with the Friends of John Loughlin Committee, or any agent of the Friends of John Loughlin Committee.

Respondents request that the Federal Election Commission summarily dismiss the complaint as it pertains to: Candidate John J. Loughlin, II, Treasurer Mia Caetano Johnson, and the Friends of John Loughlin Committee.

Very truly yours,

Robert Senville, Esq. #4289

Cc: Ms. Mia Caetano Johnson, Treasurer, Friends of John Loughlin
Mr. John J. Loughlin, II
